TO WED COUNT

CONN NAMED AS SUPREME COURT JUDGE

CAUSES SURPRISE

Van Wert Mar. Chosen
By Donahey to Succeed
Wanamaker

Post Not Solicited by Appointee, the Governor Asserts

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press)—Harry L. Conn, of Van Wert, state commissioner of insurance was named Saturday by Governor Donahey associate justice of the state supreme court to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge R. M. Wanamaker, of Akron.

In announcing the appointment
Governor Donahey declared Conn
was named solely on his reputation as a lawyer and his record as state insurance commissioner.

The governor said that appointment was unsolicited by Conn, his name being brought to his attention
by many friends throughout the state.

"I considered Mr. Conn one of the best qualified lawyers in the state to sit on the bench as his temperament is judicial in every respect as shown in his work in the insurance department," the governor said.

Appointment of Conn was somewhat of a surprise to political observers, as it had been placed semi-officially that the state would not go to any person
now connected with the administration.

Conn will serve until after the November election, filling the unexpired term of Judge Wanmaker. Election of a judge to fill out the term between November and January will be made at the election.

FIRST COURT WORK

Conn's first court work was as a stenographer of the Van Wert common pleas court and from court stenographer he became an attorney. That was nearly a quarter of a century ago.

For the past fifteen years Conn
has specialized in insurance law.
He recently, thru his department,
was instrumental in bringing on an investigation of the affairs of the defunct Municipal Loan and Savings Co. of Cleveland.

Judge Conn is senior member of the law firm of Conn, Hoke and Wright, of his home city, Van Wert, where at attended public schools and subsequently went to an eastern preparatory school.

Conn's father's death changed his life's plans, being eldest of several children he was forced to leave school and assist in care of his family. By odd jobs earning sufficient funds to enter business college, he studied stenography
and was appointed court stenographer serving until 1900. During this period he was tutored in law by well known lawyers.

ELECTED PROSECUTOR

He entered the practice of law
in 1900 and in 1903 was elected prosecuting attorney of Van Wertco, serving two terms. During the administration of Governor Cox,
he was named a member of a commission created by the legislature to investigate the law's delay and recommend needed changes in procedure and practice.

He has been a director and general counsel of a Van Wert insurance company; was a director of the Ohio Underwriters' Co. and held a like position in the American Mutual Underwriting Co., of Chicago. He is vice president of the First National Bank of Van Wert. He is a member of the Ohio and American Bar Association.

He was appointed insurance commissioner by Governor Donahey.

Judge F. L. Savage, of Paulding, now connected with the state insurance department, will act as head of the department temporarily. Governor Donahey said Saturday night. Savage is a former judge of the Paulding-co pleas court.

OHIO HEAT TOLL JUMPS TO 22

Deaths Reported From Many Parts of State

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — Five more deaths in the state Saturday resulting from the torrid weather of Thursday and Friday, brought the total in Ohio to 22. The victims either died of heat prostration or drowned.

Deaths reported Saturday were:
Frank Burke, 55, Cleveland.
J. H. Miller, 50, Lancaster.
Oswald F. Munzer, 20, Columbus.

Joseph M. Oravec, three months old, Akron.

Rain fell over practically all portions of the state Saturday brought relief but weather bureau officials said the temperature would rise again tomorrow.

ARMY RECRUIT DROWNED

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press) — Walter Sprague, 19, a Fort Hayes recruit of only a few hours, was drowned Saturday night in the Scioto river here while bathing. His body has not yet been recovered.

Sprague's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Heffner, reside at Akron.

In company with Private Leonard Marshall, another new recruit at Fort Hayes, young Sprague went to the river to seek relief from the heat. They had been in the water only a short time when Sprague drowned. Marshall, a poor swimmer himself, was rescued.

Sprague had enlisted in the army only a few hours before meeting his death.

PROCESS OF DRYING UP NEW YORK UNDER WAY

NEW YORK — The process of "drying up New York for the Democratic convention" got under way Saturday with ten raids in different sections of the city and the seizure of liquor valued at several thousands of dollars.

"Heinie" Zimmerman, former third baseman for the New York Giants, and now part owner of a cave in the Bronx.

Working under the direction of E. C. Yellowley, chief of general agents of the United States, who arrived here this morning, a dozen prohibition agents toured
the city and conducted the raids.

Two men were arrested and four cases of alleged whiskey
were seized in an alley in the rear of the Waldorf-Astoria, where are located several convention headquarters.

"THE FIRST LADY"

Mrs. Calvin Coolidge likes to go to baseball games. Just watch her smile when the Washington club starts piling up a couple of runs. At home, when she is not receiving callers, she spends much time crocheting. And when it comes to eating, she thinks there is nothing better than a tasty sugar cookie.

CONVENTION FIREWORKS LET LOOSE

Lines are Tightly Drawn Between McAdoo and Smith Forces

SCOUTS AT WORK

Two Leading Candidates Declared Whole Show At Present

NEW YORK — (By Associated Press)—The fight for the Democratic presidential nomination has become a resolute tug of war between the supporters of McAdoo and Smith, with partisans of a dozen favorite sons looking on with an apparent air of grim satisfaction over the prospect.

Three days before the national convention begins in Madison Square Garden the McAdoo and Smith camps both are making unqualified claims of a victory already won; but none the less the groups of unpledged delegates which will hold the whip hand are besieged by scouts and outrunners
from the two contesting groups as they arrive in increasing numbers to swell the convention crowds already here.

The activities of the field forces
of the two leading candidates Saturday cast into shadow every other feature of the big quadrennial show of the Democrats. The Ku Klux Klan issue which is promising the most bitter and spectacular of the contests to be waged over platform policies, was thrown for the moment into the background and all the other jealousies and disputes that always characterize the final pre-convention period were all but obliterated from the picture. Mc-Adoo and Smith, and their political lieutenants, not only hold the center of the stage but almost may be said to constitute the show themselves.

HUMAN GRAPPLE

There is a complete realization,
of course, that the Klan question,
and some of the other problems
before the convention, are submerged but temporarily. They are expected later on to kindle into flame the rivalries they have created, and to add many a colorful moment to the convention before it is over. But for today and probably for two or three days or a week to come, the delegates and their leaders are engrossed in the much more personal and human grapple of two now outstanding Democrats for the greatest honor
the party can bestow.

In its nature the scrap over the Klan must proceed up to a certain point without much outward manifestation. At the present stage it is an under-the-cover issue, to be discussed quietly but none the less gravely by party counselors in the seclusion of their conference rooms. It is no less real because of this quality, however, and when time and consultation have crystallized opinions the fireworks are expected to begin.

MAXWELL QUILTS AT Y.M.C.A.

Head of Physical Education Training Thru July 1

Resignation of I. G. Maxwell, Y.
M. C. A. director of physical education, has been handed in to "Y."
officials here, it has been announced. It will become effective July 1.

No reason has been assigned by Maxwell for his action, which comes at the close of his fourth year at the local association.

Maxwell came here from Racine, Wis., in 1920. Since he has been at the head of the physical department here, it has grown steadily and is now one of the best in the state. The past year was by far the most successful since he has been here.

On July 1 Maxwell will turn over his duties to his successor, who, it is rumored, is a Chicago man, and then he will leave for a vacation in Wisconsin.

"Max," as all his friends know him, is a member of the Lima Kiwanis club.

extreme cruelty, undefined, Sat-

vyn Clark, third wife and stage
partner of Joe Howard, song

Howard, whose real name is Joseph E. McGarragal, figured in a pre-war tangle when his first wife, Irma Kilgallen, swallowed poison in Omaha and Howard and Ethelvyn carried on their act in a nearby theatre. Miss Kilgallen had previously divorced Count
De Beaufort to marry Howard.

20 ARE INJURED

Car Jumps Track, Crashes In- to Tree at Detroit

DETROIT — (By Associated Press) — At least twenty people were reported injured somewhere between midnight and dawn
Saturday night when a street car jumped the track and crashed into a tree, wrecking the front
half of the car. Several ambulances removed the injured to hospitals.

The car was crowded when the accident occurred. Men and women were hurled from their seats
and from straps, causing a panic.
Several women passengers fainted and were injured when warned upon by other passengers attempting to gain the exits.

As far as could be learned the injured were all Detroit residents.

20,000 counterfeit government venue stamps, a large quantity of bogus whisky labels and a large printing outfit were seized here Saturday in a raid on a residence. Two men arrested were

LOCATION DECLARED UNHEALTHY

Remonstrance Petition to Be Presented on Monday

RANKIN TO ACT

Many Physicians Ex- pected To Voice Opposition

Official protest against selection by the city commission of the Collett-st site for the $800,000
city hospital will be carried into commission chambers Monday night by Allen-co Medical association in a remonstrance to be presented by Drs. J. B. Vail, Frank Steiner and V. H. Hay, remonstrance committee appointed by the association.

Reconsideration of other sites
available and withdrawal of approval of the Collett-st site will be petitioned by the committee, headed by Dr. J. B. Vail, with a possibility that some efforts may be exerted toward arranging a meeting with trustees of the present city hospital board to devise a plan whereby the city may acquire the hospital site on Bellefontaine-av.

Lima physicians are unanimous in their demands that the hospital
be erected at a "healthy location where the life of patients can be saved instead of endangered."

Collett-st site below the street level and adjacent to the Ottawa river is the most unhealthy site
that could be selected, the remonstrance states in describing the commission's choice as a "hole in the ground" and a "breeding place for disease carriers."

BETTER FIGHT LOOMS

Physicians do not specify any definite site in their remonstrance, protesting only against the Collettst location, which they consider as totally unfeasible because it does not set on a state highway, which is important in that it could be accessible from other towns for emergency calls, that it is not centrally located, and that the site is unhealthy.

Favor of placing the new structure on the present hospital site on Bellefontaine-av has never been officially endorsed by Allen-co Medical association, the remonstrance committee stated Saturday night, but expressions of various physicians leading in the fight against Collett-st location tend to place it conspicuously in the foreground, as it is centrally located on a state highway and easily accessible with street car connections, and it is sufficiently distant from the Ottawa river to prevent endangerment of patients.

Protest by physicians is expected to open a barrage that will be fired by other opponents who propose swarming the meeting to air their disapproval,
should the question be thrown open to debate by commissioners
in an effort to gain information on the attitude of the public.

INMATE PROBABLE

Commissioner John J. Rankin,
father of the fight and originator
of the "hole in the ground" expression promises action unless commissioners revoke their previous vote for the site. Rankin declined to announce his intention, preferring to spring a "surprise" at the meeting Monday night. He would not state whether he would endeavor to obtain the city
from using the Collett-st site should they refuse to reconsider.

"I can promise you that I will take some action," Rankin said.
The hospital will never go in that "hole in the ground" if I can help it. I am going to do something, but what, I can say just at present. I prefer to leave it come as a surprise."

I am positive vote of commissioners to revoke previously enacted legislation is required, it is claimed. No action was taken last Monday night due to the absence of Commissioner Ellis Jones. He will be present Monday night and a showdown will be demanded, physicians say.

Physicians deplore the action of commissioners in their selection of the Collett-st site. "We don't insist on any one place,"
Dr. Vail stated Saturday night.
but we do remonstrate against the unhealthy Collett-st location.
Hospitals are for the benefit of the people of Lima, but if our city hospital is located adjoining the river I doubt as to its usefulness."

DEATH AND RUIN IN GALE'S WAKE

Parts of Ohio, New York Hard Hit by Storm

LIGHTNING FIRES HOUSES

Akron Plant Destroyed When Hit By Bolt

BUFFALO, N. Y.—(By Associated Press)—Western New York, at midday night was reeling from its most severe visitation in years and lightning in recent years. Prostrate trees, scattered wreckage, blackened ruins dotted many towns and villages. Limen were striving to clear up the disrupted wire communications. Lightning caused a series of fires in Buffalo and the city is an hour's delay down telephone poles and trees. The damage to trees was heaviest in the South Park and Cazenovia Park sections.

The fire burned fiercely, despite torrential rains.

Surrounding communities suffered heavily. At Akron, the plant of the General Crushed Stone Co. struck by lightning, burned with a loss of $200,000. Hamburg was littered with wreckage and its streets were blocked with uprooted trees. In Wayne co damage was estimated at upwards of $100,000 with a survey of the fruit belt uncompleted. Houses and barns were blown down in Palmyra.

WRECKAGE STREWN
Along the Lake Erie shore the wreckage was strewn in a swath a mile wide. The streets of Dunkirk were choked with fallen trees and harbor craft were battered.

At Rochester the storm caused the death of Mrs. Frances LaBlanche, from fright.

The storm took a toll of one life in eastern New York and caused great damage to growing crops and property.

Glen McKelvie, at South Columbia, was killed when struck by lightning while in his home.

In the southern part of Herkimer co, a hail storm levelled a large acreage of crops.

The central part of the state also suffered heavily.

Canadian Wilds Call Four Boys

Northern Canadian wilds, with their abundance of fish and game, have proven too enticing for four Lima youths.

Bright and early Monday morning they will embark on an ancient "river" for a tour of Canadian lakes in the hope of returning with some fine catches. Those who will make the trip are Wesley Jones, Lincoln Park; Robert Gregg, W. North-st; Hugh Baumgardner, 725 Atlantic-st; Cleo Berry, 723 W. Market-st.

The boys expect to spend at least two weeks and make the more for their trip.

ANOTHER HOT WAVE DUE OVER MIDDLEWEST TODAY

CHICAGO—Summer made its official bow at noon Saturday and at the same time the middle west was promised its second taste of extreme summer weather. Temperatures of 90 degrees and higher will prevail in this area Sunday, according to the predictions of the government weather bureau. "Another heat wave will develop over the middle states," said the bureau, and the temperature will rise to 90 degrees or above Sunday. It is impossible to tell how long it will last. Summer solstice began today, and we can expect hot weather now.

PROMINENT LECTURER TO SPEAK IN LIMA TUESDAY

Allen A. Stockdale, prominent lecturer, will speak at the First Congregational church, Tuesday at 8 p. m. He will talk on "Shall We Live or Die?" in which he will relate the psychological effect of worry and its opposite upon the facial features. This is said to be a popular lecture, full of fun, giving the speaker opportunity to use advantageously his ability as an impersonator.

MRS. ROMSHE'S CONDITION AT HOSPITAL UNCHANGED

The condition of Mrs. George Romshe, 30, who attempted to end her life a week ago, is still hanging in the balance at St. Rita's hospital. Little change was manifested in her condition, according to word from the hospital.

Physicians yet are undecided as to how many of the bichloride of mercury tablets the woman swallowed.

As these tablets form slow poisoning, death may at any time appear, should sufficient quantity have been taken, they state.

Her attempt to end her life occurred at the home of a sister, Mrs. Edmund Mattheis, 919 Richie-av, where she was visiting her mother and sister, while her husband was absent, working at Springfield.

DR. ROWAND TO SPEAK BEFORE LIMA KIWANIS

Lima Kiwanians will be addressed at their regular weekly meeting Tuesday noon at Hotel Barr by Dr. C. A. Rowand, pastor of Trinity M. E. church, who will speak on "Have a Heart."

OHIOAN BEATEN BY CROWD

Near Riot Breaks At Klan
Meeting in Niles

NILES—(By Associated Press)—One man was severely beaten in a series of outbreaks here Saturday night, the culmination of a tri-state knoxing of the Ku Klux Klan, in which a number of American flags were torn from automobiles by a crowd of men calling themselves "Knights of the Flaming Circle."

The disorders occurred while streets were lined with people waiting for a Klan parade to start, but which was abandoned an hour before the scheduled starting time when Klan officials were advised by state Klan headquarters to call it off if trouble was anticipated.

Guy Richards of Salt Springs was pulled from his automobile and severely beaten by a crowd of several hundred which with a derisive "down with the Klan" yell, tore off the stars and stripes with which his machine was decorated. He was rescued by friends.

A parade of "Knights of the Flaming Circle" was later disbanded by the police.

The crowds began to thin out late tonight and Police Chief L. J. Rounds declared he feared no further trouble. No arrests had been made up to that time.

Trouble had been feared if the klansmen paraded following a near riot which resulted at a Klan procession here May 9, and then bombing of a flaming cross lighted opposite McKinley Memorial.

The klansmen held their knoxing at De Forest, a mile west of the city. The demonstration ended with a display of fireworks. Large delegations were in attendance from Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Mainly About People

Mrs. Grace Drew, of Churkwater, Wyoming, who has not made a trip east for twenty years, arrived in Lima, Saturday, and is visiting with her sister, Mrs. S. Drew, 1204 W. High-st. She was accompanied by her children.

Prayer services will be held at Rescue Home Sunday at 2:30 p. m. under the auspices of Rev. A. J. Welby.

Miss Leland, interior decorator of the Lima Krt Shoppe, has purchased two W. E. Shook and C. W. Counsellor, salesmen for the Webb Co., the home of Elmer D. Webb at 616 W. Spring-st, which she expects to use for display of home furnishings and interior decorating work.

PHYSICIANS ARRIVE FOR MEETING AT CLEVELAND

CLEVELAND—Physicians began arriving here Saturday night from all parts of the United States for the eighth annual convention of the American Institute of Homeopathy, the oldest national medical organization in the country.

The convention opens with a reception tomorrow afternoon and ends with a banquet Thursday night. Officers will be elected Wednesday.

FINE FOR MISTAKES.

LENINGRAD, Russia—It's Leningrad—not Petrograd—and Soviet government authorities intend to fine any one who presents a letter at the postoffice addressed to Petrograd. All newspaper dispatches from this city carry a Leningrad date. The name of Peter the Great's capital was changed in tribute to the late Bolshevik premier, Nicholas Lenin.

60th Wedding Anniversary Is Celebrated

GLANDORF—Citizens of Glandorf and many friends throughout the county are extending felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frank, who celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding.

Both are 72 years of age. Mr. Frank was born in Germany and came to Glandorf at the age of five, since which time he has continuously resided here. Mrs. Frank was born in Glandorf and spent her entire life in the village.

Frank is a civil war veteran and is the last of a company of 101 men who composed Company D, of the gallant Twenty-first Ohio regiment. DIG UP THE PAST

MEXICO CITY—Efforts to uncover the mystery which surrounds the history of America during a period dating back 3000 years are being put forward by the Morley archaeological expedition, which is conducting explorations in the primitive region of Yucatan. The expedition is sponsored by the Carnegie Foundation. The party is keeping in touch with New Orleans by radio.

Frank Fokler, who was subjected to an operation for malaria at Lima City hospital, Saturday, is reported to be in favorable condition.

FIREWORKS ON AT NEW YORK

The contest has become a struggle matching in its intensity the most celebrated in party history, and with the added modern qualities of feverish haste and perfect organization. Distributed everywhere, the millionaires for Smith and McAdoo are carrying their gospels into every nook and corner where delegates are to be found.

There are handshakes and welcoming smiles for the uninitiated as they step from their trains; candidatorial literature, badges and souvenirs are thrust into their hands as they pass thru the lobbies of their hotels and are slipped under their doors; their cars are assailed with unceasing waves of praise for the qualities of the favorite candidates. And they are assured solemnly by the Smith men that Smith is certain to be nominated and by the McAdoo men that McAdoo is the only possible winner.

PRIVATE ELEVATOR.
At the McAdoo headquarters high in an uptown hotel, a private elevator is provided to carry callers to the exclusive conference rooms where the inner circle of the McAdoo managers use their best persuasive powers on possible converts. Negro doorkeepers go to and fro with flying messages from one lieutenant to another, with reports from listening posts out before the enemy, and with orders and advice from those in command on the firing line. The air of driving enthusiasm and of urgent determination is inescapable.

The Smith forces are quite as busy, and their convention machinery is far flung across the hotel section of New York. The governor himself is living at one hotel where many delegates and party leaders are congregated for the convention and in his suite receives a constant stream of visitors.

SCOUTS EVERYWHERE.

In another hotel, where the Democratic national committee is housed, there are two Smith headquarters, one on the street level just adjacent to the lobby and one in a quieter and more secluded spot several floors above. In addition, the offices of the Smith campaign manager, Franklin D. Roosevelt, occupy a suite in an uptown office building and hold open house. His scouts are everywhere, like a distinguishing "Smith for President" badge by the thousands, and a group of women are preparing to pass around Smith souvenir lavilliers and vanity cases to women delegates.

If this campaign has done more than to close up the gaps in the opposing ranks, there is no outward evidence of it except the rival managers. No favorite has been abandoned and no delegation has announced any change of allegiance since it reached New York. On the contrary, those who have the keys to the paddock of dark horses profess to be gaining hope hourly as the McAdoo and Smith supporters tighten their grip on one another's throats.

Saturday the Alabama organization of Senator Oscar W. Underwood dressed up its headquarters in a full regalia that bespoke complete confidence. The friends of John W. Davis announced that a decided swing in their candidate was definitely under way. A group of Virginians organized to actively promote the candidacy of Senator Carter Glass as "the best compromise candidate."

A Houston informant said that the senator, in a public statement naming David F. Houston, former secretary of the treasury, as an acceptable nominee "in the event of a deadlock," and first arrivals among the Nebraska delegates brought word that Governor Charles W. Bryan not only would receive the complimentary vote of his state but would be formally nominated as a full-fledged candidate.

Thomas Taggart, Indiana leader, insists that his confidence in the nomination of Senator Ralston continues unabated.

INDEPENDENT BLOCS

Meantime, conferences among those who control independent blocs of delegates multiplied throughout today and tonight.

Many of the best party prognosticators believe it will take a half dozen ballots at least to show the convention candidates just where they stand. Predictions of a long deadlock are mingled freely with the confident claims of the McAdoo and Smith people that a nomination will come early in the balloting. In the midst of all this bustle and confusion, heightened hourly by the arrival of new delegations, Charles H. Hull and his colleagues, among officials of the Democratic national committee, are having about the easiest time of all.

When the committee met today to hear contests, approve the arrangements of its subcommittee for the convention, and wind up its pre-convention labors, it found hardly enough to occupy it for a quarter of an hour.

There were no contests; the arrangements gave the necessary approval and adjournment was taken before some of the belated members had arrived in the committee room.

KEYNOTE ADDRESS

No action was taken on the proposal to let Senator Pat Harrison, the convention temporary chairman, deliver his keynote address on Tuesday evening so as to catch the ear of the greater audience over the radio. The question still is to be decided. As the program stands, the senator's speech will follow almost immediately on the opening of the convention at noon Tuesday, but some of the party leaders are still advocating an evening keynote. The decision may be put up to the convention itself.

Neither has it been determined when nominating speeches for the presidential candidates will begin. Some convention officials want to go ahead with that Wednesday's session, while the platform committee is at work, but with the understanding that there shall be no balloting until after the session of Tuesday.

BUFFALO IS WHERE PEARY TRAINS FOR ARCTIC TRIPS

BY WILL CRESSY
Buffalo is where you change cars for Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls is where you go when you get married; if such. Owing to the prevalence of married folks at Niagara Falls there are many suicides there.

It is a wonderful sight to see all that water falling over the falls, but how much more wonderful it would be if it did NOT FALL.

The first tourist excursion to come to Buffalo came in 1879, with Conductor La Salle in charge of the train. But as they only had stopover tickets on their way thru to Celeron Park, out at Jamestown, they did not stop long.

The first real homesteaders came in 1792 and opened a fur store on Main Street. But just as they were getting settled down and beginning to do a paying business, a lot of English rowdies came over and moved their town about six miles out into the lake.

Two years later the town was rebuilt and they started all over again. Mr. Pierce met Mr. Arrow and they started in the automobile business. Mike Shea started the Garden Theatre. Mrs. Statler began taking boarders.

In 1901, the dramatic critics of the town got up a fair; the "Pan-American" Exposition. It started in kind of a fuzzy at first, but later on business picked up and they almost made money.

Buffalo was the end of Lake Erie, the Erie Canal and Mark Hanna's influence.

Owing to their having seven miles of water, several ships stop there. They can handle five million bushels of grain a day. I don't say they DO, but they CAN.

Buffalo has several nice ponds and lakes, including Lake Erie. It also has several nice parks, including Delaware Park, which has a Zoo, a flock of tame sheep and an insane asylum in it.

There have been a good many things named for Buffalo. Buffalo Bill, who used to shoot Buffalo Nickels out in Delaware Park for claims want to go ahead with that Wednesday's session, while the platform committee is at work, but with the understanding that there shall be no balloting until after the session of Tuesday.

Some of the favorite sons will not be placed in nomination formally, but even at that, there will be enough nominating and seconding speeches to occupy many hours. The list of those who will speak is not yet complete, but the following so far have been selected:

For William G. McAdoo—Former Senator James D. Phelan of California; for Alfred E. Smith—Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Democratic vice presidential candidate of 1920; for Senator Oscar W. Underwood, Forney Johnson, Birmingham, Ala.; for James M. Cox, Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war; for John W. Davis, Judge John M. Holt, Huntington, W. Va.; for Governor G. S. Silber, John A. Matthews, Newark, N. J.; for Senator Joseph T. Robinson, former Governor Charles H. Brough of Arkansas; for Governor Johnathan Davis, Representative Ayres of Kansas; for Governor Charles W. Bryan, Harry B. Fiehrer, Omaha, Neb.; and for former Senator Willard Saulsbury, Senator Charles F. Bayard of Delaware.

At his own request the name of Senator Samuel M. Ralston of Indiana will not be formally placed before the convention, and the supporters of Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, David F. Houston and several others have not yet decided whether to present their names in formal nominating speeches. The movement to bring forward Senator Glass as a compromise candidate was sponsored by Senator Swann.

His colleague in the senate, John Sticker Bryan, publisher of the Richmond News-Leader, and several others from Virginia, Mr. Bryan, in a formal statement, declared the friends of Mr. Glass had found "lots of delegates" favoring him for the nomination despite the fact that thus far no active campaign in his behalf had been made outside his home state.

HULL'S STATEMENT

Chairman Hull of the national committee issued the statement: "The spirit of unity and of unselfishness has at every step characterized the services and activities of the Democratic national committee. That the coming convention, in spirit of friendly rivalry as regards candidates, will conduct its proceedings wisely and harmoniously along sound lines, and with party success as their paramount aim, is now plainly evident."

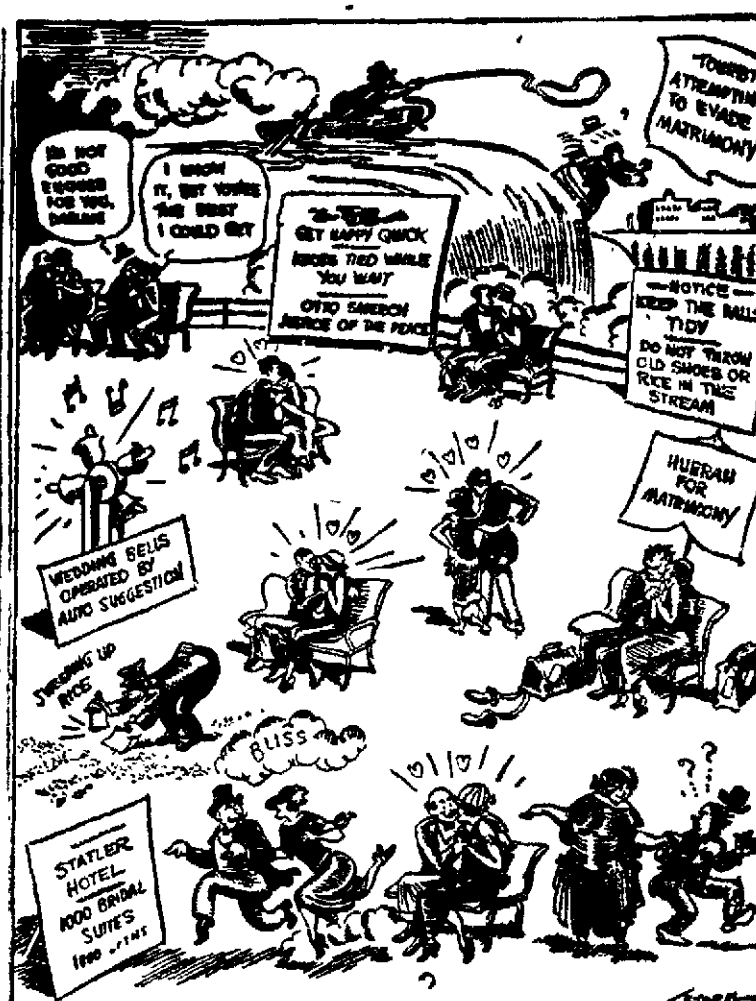

Wayne B. Wheeler, general counsel of the Anti-Saloon league, declared prohibition enforcement conditions in New York were "by no means bad."

"New York enforcement conditions on the eve of the convention are not as good as at Cleveland," Mr. Wheeler said, "but they are by no means bad. They are so much better than the old saloon regime that we are greatly encouraged."

"The delegates representing the great west and south and central parts of the country have shown no inclination toward a wet plank. Most of them are for a strong enforcement plank similar to that adopted in the Virginia convention."

APPLICATIONS FILED
Applications for drivers' licenses to transport school children to and from school in the county were filed by more than 15 men at County Superintendent C. M. Arganbright's office in Memorial hall Saturday.

Buffalo, during the war was quite busy. Buffalonians were very enthusiastic in their support of their country—whether it was America or Germany.

That Buffalo is an American city is shown by the newspapers, among which we find:

POLAK W. AMERYCE (Polish); ALBORA and CHRISTICIS WOCHIE (German); CARRIERE ITALIANO (Italian); HACIENDA (Spanish); and also issue a Portuguese edition), DZIENNIK DLA WSYSTKICH (Polish); THE PSI QUARTERLY (American Indians); and they even have a paper for horses, THE HORSE WORLD.

Buffalo has a fine climate, Peary, the Arctic Explorer, always does his preliminary training in Buffalo.

I forgot to mention, this is Buffalo, N. Y., I am writing about.

PENNSY TRAIN IS WRECKED

Baseball Clubs in Smashup
Near Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH—(By Associated Press)—The Pennsylvania train carrying the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati National League baseball clubs to Cincinnati, was wrecked at Walker's Mills, a short distance from Carnegie, a suburb, Saturday night. Baseball writers on the train reported to their newspapers that none of the players had been seriously injured.

Two coaches of the passenger train were derailed but no one was injured, according to announcement by the Pennsylvania railroad. The wreck was caused, according to the railroad company, when a derailed freight car swerved into the passenger train. Both tracks were blocked.

Wrecking crews were hurried to the scene but railroad officials said it would require several hours to clear the tracks. Meantime, they said, arrangements probably would be made for re-routing the train carrying the baseball players, as well as others to avoid prolonged delays in service.

GERMAN MERCHANTS LOSE IN FRENCH WINES

BERLIN—French wines have been pouring into this country at a tremendous rate of late, particularly during the period of the fall of the French franc. So great was the business at times that the French merchants had to call a halt in order to catch up in their bookkeeping. The transfers were mostly paper transactions, and when the decline of the franc suddenly halted many dealers who had contracted for French wine on the theory that the franc would fall still further, were caught short and were unable to carry out their obligations.

Wine prices fluctuated madly in the days when the franc suddenly took its upward course after the announcement of the American loan. Fortunes were won and lost on wine as well as on all other French articles which are much sought in foreign trade. Many of the small banks which have failed as a result of franc speculation, were literally drowned in French wine.

NOW! SKAT IS SUN BATHING

Skat is out again. Here he is sitting on the third base bleachers at Murphy's park watching the first Sunday game of the Ohio Eye league. Because of the pleasant weather looked forward to for seven consecutive Sundays, Skat took his speedster out Sunday morning and enjoyed a spin over Lima's smooth streets.

The sun was so welcome in the afternoon that Skat pulled his tail up behind him and ignored the Murphy's park grandstand for the privilege of sitting under the sun's glare on the bleachers. "Might just as well get all this sun I can," Skat says, "because the weather man threatens cloudy weather for Monday and this might mean rain."

PLANE PLUNGES TO LAKE BOTTOM, BIRDMAN UNHURT

CHICAGO—(By Associated Press)—Two aviators fell from an altitude of 75 feet into Lake Michigan here Saturday, plunged to the bottom of the lake with their plane, climbed from the trap in the cockpit, rose to the surface of the water and were rescued.

Henry Clark, the pilot, and Ben Timm, mechanic, both of Chicago, were trying out a new model hydroplane when Clark's trousers leg caught in the rudder control and threw the plane sideways into a wing slip.

The aviators under water climbed thru the maze of wires over the cockpit, and the plane, relieved of their weight, rose to the surface a mile out in the lake. The men hung to the side of the plane until a tug came to the rescue.

TRUST BUYS NEWSPAPER; EDITORIAL STAFF QUILTS

LIBERTY — The entire editorial staff of the Diario de Noticias, the oldest and one of the most important newspapers in Portugal, resigned and walked out at 10 o'clock one night recently when they discovered that the Flour Mills Company, which is the bread trust of this country, had secretly gained control of the property.

The editor of the paper was appointed Minister to London recently and an official of the Flour Mills Company installed himself in the director's room and gave orders that all copy must pass thru his hands. The staff, numbering some of the best known writers in the country, resigned and joined another publication which has started a vigorous campaign against the powerful trust.

You may select your executor but Ohio law determines his salary

SOME persons are under the impression that when our Trust Division administers an estate the cost is greater than it would be the estate were handled by a relative or a friend of the family.

We welcome opportunities to make clear the fact that there is no difference in the compensation allowed by law to either a bank or an individual. The payment is based on a percentage of the amount of the estate, and that percentage remains the same no matter who handles the estate.

The duties of an executor and an administrator are virtually identical, the fee allowed by law the same in either case, and it is the same whether the estate be administered by an individual or by this bank. The fee amounts to 6% of the first $1000, 4% of the next $4000, and 2% of the total value of the estate over $5000. When an estate is left "in trust" for the benefit of the heirs, the trustee's compensation is fixed by the court on the basis of services rendered and responsibilities involved.

Every person has the right to make disposition of own property by writing a will and naming his own executor and trustee, but if this is not done, the court appoints an administrator without reference to what might have been the wishes of the deceased. If no will is made, or if a will is made naming an individual executor or trustee who should die before his duties are terminated, the man who steps in as the general manager of your affairs after your death may be one in whose judgment and ability you personally have no faith whatever.

Many an estate has paid excessive administration costs merely because an inexperienced executor created expenses by being compelled to seek outside help to do the very things he should be equipped to do. As a rule, his own fee, in spite of the additional expense thus incurred, has remained the same.

In handling estates, just as in any other field of endeavor, the efforts of inexperienced or incompetent persons are always much more costly in the long run than the services of reliable men who understand their work.

Our trust officers are expert executors and trustees. They are thoroughly trained and qualified to handle every detail pertaining to your estate. Moreover, they have available the good counsel of the bank's officers and its Board of Directors. Knowing that a safe and proper distribution of your estate is of the greatest importance to you and to your family, we extend a cordial invitation to come in and discuss these matters with us. Without obligating you in any way, we shall gladly give you the benefit of our experience.

ING MISTAKE DISCOVERED

Certification of Candidates Is Being Delayed

STATE OPINION SOUGHT

Seven Weeks Campaign Starts July 1 In County

Certification of the names of a group of fourth district candidates from Darke-co is holding up the filing of J. Lynn Williams, Democrat, for state central committee, J. M. Madigan, chairman of the Allen-co board, was informed Saturday.

Williams filed as J. Lynn Williams and as J. Lynn Williams. The Darke-co board is seeking information from the state board on which name to place on the ballot.

Until they receive a reply the certification will not be made, the chairman told Madigan. Names of William H. Williams, also a candidate for Democratic state central committee, and Dr. W. D. Fitzgerald, Republican candidate for Congress, are held up as well.

BITTER FIGHT LOOMS

Fight for Democratic committee looms up as a bitter contest with Lehr E. Miller, of Lima, competing against a trio from the city of the district, J. Guy O'Donnell, of Miami-co, is the fourth contender.

Miller's chance of landing the plum, Democratic leaders declared Saturday, are greatly enhanced by the filing of J. L. Williams and William H. Williams.

Candidates in the county were tuning up Saturday for the seven weeks' campaign fight which ends primary day, August 12. Active campaigning will get under way by July 1 when the office seekers will commence to make their rounds of the county.

HEAT IS BLAMED FOR DIVORCES

Three Are Filed in Court of Putnam-Co.

OTTAWA — When hot weather approaches and people refuse to stand for the transgression of others, then is when the divorce season begins.

This is the opinion of Albert H. Stramm, Ottawa lawyer, who has drawn many a petition and who has been the means of reconciling as many more, before the case over reached common pleas court.

Two divorce cases were filed Friday, bearing out Stramm's conclusion. In one of these Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Eicholtz, of Leipsic, is plaintiff against Richard P. Eicholtz, of Napoleon. Both plaintiff and defendant are 29 years of age. Mrs. Eicholtz is plaintiff in the second case against Marion Ernest Quillen, of Hamilton.

Mrs. Eicholtz, who was married to Richard Edwards, before her marriage, says that six months of married life was enough for her. The petition states that the couple were married on August 15, 1927, in Maumee, and that no children were born of the union. Eicholtz charges that her husband provided her with no necessities, and that he made no effort to find regular employment with which to procure funds to establish a home.

She states that he has maintained a cold and indifferent attitude to her, that since his marriage he has stood aloof, not giving her the affection usually shown to a bride.

Mrs. Quillen, in her action for divorce, says she was married to Quillen on September 28, 1912, in Memphis, and that they have two children, George William, aged 10, and Ernest Marion, 8.

She charges cruelly and says that her husband threatened to murder her, unless she left him and procure a divorce. Habitual drunkenness for three years past also is made one of the grounds upon which the decree is sought.

Quillen owns property in North Canton, his wife says.

GILBOA PAYS TRIBUTE TO DROWNING VICTIMS

GILBOA — Gilboa's tribute to Charles Williams and Chas. Taylor, who lost their lives in the sinking of the Ticonderoga in mid-ocean in 1915, has found its place on the surface of the waters of the great Atlantic.

Word received from Andrew Rose, of Gilboa, who carried the great wreath of poppies, is to the effect that when the vessel on which he was sailing reached the spot at which the Ticonderoga went down, he dropped the flowers to the water.

Members of Harter-Williams post No. 135, American Legion, paid the wreath.

BRIDE ELECT HONORED AT SCHWEIKERT SHOWER

GLANDORF — Miss Monica Hunchberger and Mrs. Joseph Schweikert entertained Wednesday night at a miscellaneous shower, honoring Miss Phyllis Heckman, bride-elect.

Rooms of the Schweikert home were gay with flowers from Glandorf. The table at which the bride-elect was seated was adorned with yellow and white roses, while at the points about the dining-room.

Miss Heckman was remembered with a basket of pretty things which will go to make beautiful her new home.

Guests invited were Mrs. Benjamin Nienberg, Mrs. Frank Nienberg, Mrs. Joseph Nienberg, Mrs. Mary Rump, Mrs. Kraft, of Toledo, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Root, and Miss Frances Nienberg.

ATLANTIC CITY IS BIGGEST PLANKED AREA ON EARTH

BY WILL CRESSY

ATLANTIC CITY is where EASTER starts—and lasts 364 days. Here Atlantic City dressed up in five miles of board walks, and put on style, it was just plain old-fashioned ABSECON BEACH. Absecon Beach was located on the seaward side of a low, sandy island, off the coast of New Jersey, 10 miles long, half a mile wide and, in its most mountainous region, placing the clouds at an elevation of seven and a half feet.

The island originally belonged to old Abner Secon, and he used to use it to scour knives with. But the folks kept coming over more and more to bathe on Ab. Secon's beach, and finally some Philadelphia folks ran a railroad to it, and ATLANTIC CITY was born.

As the beach was the only part of the island anybody could walk on without snowshoes, they had to build boardwalks. And then as every body on the island had to either go in swimming or stay on the walk, they had to keep extending it.

Until today it is the biggest planked area in the world. Five miles long and 50 feet wide. And here every day in the year, and most of the night, you can find the poor folks walking and the rich folks either riding in the wheel chairs—or pushing them.

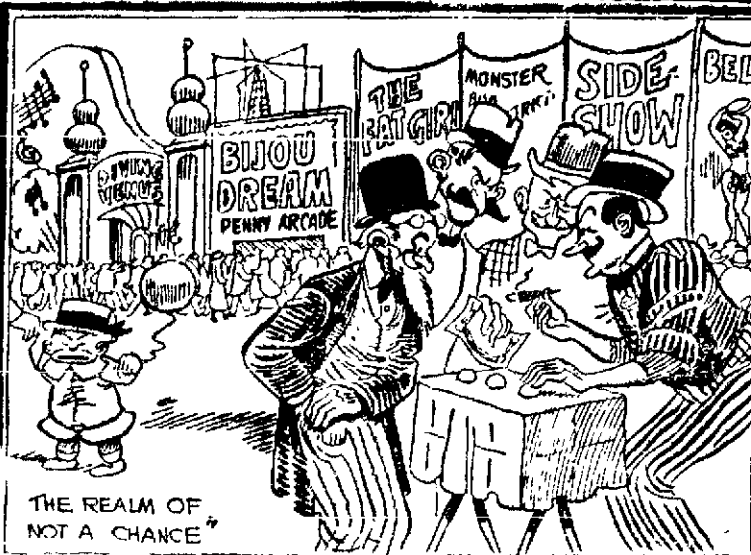

The shore side of the walk is lined with hotels, boarding houses, stores, moving picture shows, carnivals, hot doggeries, Song-Flurgies, Hair-Booberies, Peaputeries, Doughnuteries and all sorts of Auction Rooms.

In these Auction Rooms you can buy anything from a full dressed flea to a stuffed Siberian Mink Ox; from a Persian Prayer Rug to a pair of brass knuckles.

In these places, Auction Rooms and Temples of (Not by) Chance, that "Gentlemen's Agreement" we had with Japan has been obtrusively violated, for there are enough of them right there on that one street to exceed the entire state quota.

The most popular place of amusement at A. C. or anywhere else, is YOUNG SPEER. Young Speer is a colorful figure, was an Indian Chief of the Sadwa Tribe, and the husband of La Belle Pocahontas, the Indian Lady Barber who so successfully, and historically, shaved the Smith Brothers.

Of late years the spelling of this resort has been changed to Atlantic City. It is an iron pier extending out almost, but not quite, to The Three Mile Limit. Upon its broad spaces can be found about every form of amusement but a Congressional investigation and a Swedeborgian Church Service.

There are dance halls, theatres, shady nooks, shadier crooks, and fleeting on the sides. They pull the nets three times a day and the rest of it is as often as necessary. It is now necessary now to travel to see the world. Just go to Atlantic City. The whole world is there. Along the great Board Walk.

There are Austrian glass blowers, Algerian acrobats, African trap shooters, Belgian bread bakers, Bolivian bologna boilers, Chinese Chop Suey choppers, Danish dancers, French hair dressers, German waiters, Hungarian goulash kobs, Irish lace makers, Italian spaghetti blowers, Indian fighters, Japanese jugglers, Mexican mandolin manipulators, Micale Shoal dancers, Norwegian north pole discoverers, Peruvian Penuna peddlers, Russian refugees, Swiss bell ringers, Scandinavian scrap specialists, Swedish massurers, Philadelphia flappers, Camden cutlers, Trenton farmers, New York theatrical managers, and bobbed haired bandits from every state in the Union.

PUTNAM FARMERS WILL ATTEND BIG MEETING

OTTAWA — Poultry and wheat-field days at the Ohio Experiment station in Wooster, on next Thursday and Friday, will be big times for farmers, according to J. W. Henceroth, Putnam-co agricultural extension agent.

The large party from Putnam-co probably will make the trip on the Lincoln highway, which reaches Wooster direct, going in motor cars.

While the day has gradually taken on the wheatfield name, it is a general crop, horticultural, poultry and experiment station day.

Governor A. V. Donahay will speak in the afternoon.

WASTEFUL ARAB RULE CURBED

British Take Hand in Government of Transjordan

Wanted to Restore Order

Arab Becoming Dependent on Palestine

AMMAN, Transjordan.—(By Associated Press.)—Left by the British government for the last years to set its house in order, Transjordan is again becoming virtually a part of Palestine, financially and administratively dependent on the Palestine government. It is returning to a penitient mood because its independence with the Emir Abdullah, son of King Hussein of the Arab, as ruler, and the grace of British aid, proved to be too costly.

The cost of Transjordan's independence came to be in inverse proportion to the size of the subsidy, the more the British subsidy, the less financial independence. As this year's system of taxation and
of farming the tax, especially among the Bedouin tribes, calculated to increase the British subsidy, the Transjordan relinquished some of its self-determination to the British.

That was the inquiry made in Justice of Peace E. M. Botkin's court Saturday by G. W. Warfield, cigar store owner, 130 E.
High-st., when arraigned on charge of selling ball pools.

"Others are getting away with it," was Warfield's plea. Why were they not arrested too?

Justice Botkin told the defendant that he did not know why,
but he thought it was because officers had been unable to catch them.

Warfield entered a plea of guilty and paid a fine of $20 and costs.

He was arrested following a raid made on his business place
by Sheriff Crosson on June 12.
Evidence was obtained by a boy who bought a pool and then turned it over to officers. A considerable quantity of pool tickets were confiscated.

The official charge against Warfield was selling a pool on a game of skill.

CROWN PRINCE'S RELICS ARE SOLD AT LOW FIGURE

AMSTERDAM.—Two hundred florins the valuation put by the folk of Wieringen upon the piano
left there by the German ex-crown prince, and a stove and a linen chest brought less than 11 florins
each.

These prices were obtained at an auction of things left behind
by Frederick William of Hohenzollern when he made his get-away to the Fatherland. He removed his more valuable possessions, but what remained became the property of the state, which in turn ceded it to the Wieringen community. The bidders at the auction were for the most part small tradesmen and antiquarians.

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Two

rying duration flights were declared to have been broken here Saturday afternoon by Lieutenants

nival staged as a part of a Kentucky "home-coming" celebration.

Lieutenant MacReady, flying eight passenger army transport plane carrying 51 pounds, remained in the air seven hours and 20 and a fraction minutes. This feat, observers said, set a new record for that type of machine.
The pilot was forced down by a leaking radiator.

Flying a Martin bomber, with a cargo of 1,102 pounds, including a passenger, Lieutenant Harris,
remained in the air seven hours, 20 and a fraction minutes. The former record also made by Lieutenant Harris, at Dayton, June 5,
was two hours, 12 and a fraction minutes.

AMERICAN CIVIC CENTER PLANNED FOR SHANGHAI

SHANGHAI.—Shanghai before many years will have an American civic center located in the French concession of the city,
if present plans are carried out.
This is being brought about by the erection of a new American school, and in the same area
with the school the Community church congregation has begun
the first American church to be erected here.

The church structure has been designed not only to be distinctive architecturally, but particularly to serve as a community center six days of the week and as a house of worship on Sundays. In line with this aim the first unit of the project now under construction will be a hall capable of seating 600 people.
This will serve for church services until the completion of the church proper, when it will be converted into a Sunday school.
An annex of three stories will include a social hall and residence for the pastor.

The Community church now
three years old, developed from what was called the American Song Service, which held weekly Sunday afternoon meetings. The congregation, numbering nearly 550, includes adherents of no less than 25 denominations.

DEMAND FOR INCREASED WAGES TO BE PROBED

NEW YORK.—Demands for an increase in wages made by shopmen and clerks of the Pennsylvania railroad will be investigated
by two fact-finding committees
created jointly by the railroad and its employees, it was learned Saturday.

One of the committees consists of representatives of the management and of the company's union and the other of representatives of the management and of the clerk's union. They will act separately. The inquiry is expected to last thru the summer.

ROADWAY BODY IS BOOSTED

Organization To Be Formed At Meeting Tuesday

ORGANIZATIONS VISITED

Officers To Be Elected And Business Transacted

Formation of an Allen-co good roads association to foster highway improvement is meeting with general approval of various civic, professional and fraternal organizations throughout the county, members of the temporary executive committee declared Saturday.

Indications are every organization in the county invited to send representatives to the initial meeting in common pleas court room Tuesday will respond.

The proposed organization is proving particularly popular with farmers, according to reports. J. C. Jones, Sugar Creek, and Albert East, American, are two big landowners who endorsed the association Saturday.

"It is just the sort of movement needed," they declare to carry on the existing road program and put over future improvements.

URGE ATTENDANCE. Both men declared Saturday that every organization in the county and every individual interested in better roads should be present at the meeting Tuesday.

The committee appointed at a meeting of the board of governors of the Lima Automobile club June 10 have arrangements well in hand. Invitations have been sent out to granges, lunch clubs, lodges, labor unions, township trustees, county commissioners and county and city officials inviting them to attend. The committee is composed of Senator Tom Berry, Spencerville, chairman; Glen I. Wallace, Melvin Light, B. A. Gramm, J. C. Leudick and Kirby White.

Each organization is invited to send three representatives to the meeting.

Election of permanent officers will be among the first matters to be taken up after the meeting is called to order.

Outlining of plans for completing the present five year state road program will be considered next.

Other matters for discussion will be formation of a new five year road program by means of state and federal co-operation, and the improvement of secondary roads throughout the county.

BLACK DIAMOND, NOTED OSTRICH, IS KILLED

HOT SPRINGS, Ark.—"Black Diamond," famous ostrich, was killed.

The passing of the noted bird recalls the memorable event at Greenville, Ohio, 17 years ago, when "Black Diamond" sprinted a half mile in 1:05, setting an American record which still stands. "Black Diamond" was killed in a fight with six other ostriches at the farm of Tom J. Cockburn near here. So fierce was the struggle that the heavy fence about the enclosure in which the ostriches were confined was splintered in several places. Peace was restored by attendants only after "Black Diamond" lay mortally wounded.

"Black Diamond" was 59 years old. He raced on many tracks from California to New England during a period of fifteen years and he never was defeated.

Arriving here, Butler reported the party headquarters were set up in Chicago and declared "we are ready for the campaign." He told Mr. Coolidge the nomination of Charles D. Dawes for vice president had been enthusiastically received, particularly in the western states.

The president had luncheon with Butler, Charles B. Warren, ambassador to Mexico and chairman of the resolutions committee at the national convention; and Charles D. Hilles, national committeeman from New York. This afternoon a more extended conference was held aboard the Mayflower, the presidential yacht, on a short cruise down the Potomac.

MUSIC NOTES

The new Victor records are out! Paderewski and John McCormack, Paul Whiteman and Wilfred Glenn are on the list. The immortal Paderewski plays, from Chopin-of-all-moods, the "Etude in C Sharp Minor" and "Mazurka in A Minor." John McCormack is singing, inimitably, "Marcheta," a favorite Mexican love song, and "Indiana Moon." Johann Strauss' beautiful Viennese waltzes are played in full symphony this week by the Victor Symphony Orchestra.

It is easy to imagine what a treat "The Hoodoo Man" is, as played by Whiteman's Orchestra. Another extremely popular orchestra, the S. S. Leviathan, has recorded an irresistible piece with whistling effects, "Nightingale." The Troubadours and Barney Rapp have made some new dance records too good to pass by. And Wilfred Glenn is at his best in two more sea songs, "The Happiness Boys are newcomers" on the records; but their first performance is a scrambling funny comedy on the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" theme, with the song hit, "Oh, Eva."

ODIN HOODS IN U.S. PROTEST

Yalty Men" Create Violent Demonstrations

ADER VERY POWERFUL

all Body Plays Important Role in Politics

BY J. W. T. MASON
NEW YORK—(By United Press)—The Japanese Ronins, are the leaders of the demonstrations in Tokyo against the United States congress and the exclusion act, are "yalty men" who have pledged themselves to keep alive the spirit of ancient and modern Japan. Ronin means "wave" who is a rover, because of death of his lord and can serve under any other lord, because loyalty can never be divided.
The most popular story in Japan concerns the deed of the Forty-seven Ronins, who, in 1703, led the household of a great of the Shogun's court in (then called Yedo), because the lord had insulted and the death of their own lord. The Forty-seven Ronins all the members of the of household and cut off the head of the enemy lord.
This they were condemned to and all Forty-seven Ronins by disembowelment. The disembowelment ceremony is spiritual in its significance. Theoretically it releases the soul, so that observers can see a pure, even tho the day be impure. The graves of the Forty-seven form a center of reverence in Tokyo. Their deed was committed ages of degeneracy and decay and stirred the Yamato from its lethargy.
HOOD OF NIPPON
Modern Ronins are trying to serve for Japan the so-

SUMMER'S HERE

Here are two pretty girls in bathing suits. We don't know who they are. We don't know where they are. In fact, we don't know anything about them. We don't have any reason—really—for printing their picture, except it is nice to look at. Today is the first day of summer, and this is a good picture for summer.

called Yamato ideal, which is needs of material desires. The Ronins are led by a picturesque figure in Japan's life, Mitsuru Toyama, who is regarded as the "Robin Hood" of Nippon, helper of the weak against the strong. He is an elderly man, who gives orders from his Tokyo residence that are religiously carried out by his followers.

There is much difference of opinion among Japanese concerning Toyama and his Ronins. Among the romantically minded, he has been invested with the glory that attaches to the name of Robin Hood in America and England. But there are many who deny the truth of the legends about him.

Instead of being concerned with checking the modern materialism of Japan, Toyama and the Ronins are said to represent that part of the character of the old samurai which was quarrelsome, autocratic and overbearing. The Ronins in Tokyo have been accused of letting themselves out for hire, for the purpose of breaking up meetings, purely from motives of political partisanship. They have not hesitated, it has been charged with rushing into the diet and attempting by threats of violence to overawe members of parliament.

WANT AN AUTOCRACY
Instead of favoring constitutional evolution of government in Japan, the Ronins often give the impression that they want an autocratic regime, believing that democracy leads to materialistic degeneracy. Toyama, who is deeply religious, always worships facing in the direction of the residence of the Mikado.

Toyama's power is beyond dispute. His influence upon Japanese thought cannot be dismissed in considering Japan's relations with the western world. He is the undoubted spokesman for a large part of the population of Japan, which, while not favoring violent methods, nevertheless looks with dismay upon the possibility of western ways undermining Japan's virtues and crushing the nation's sense of spiritual values.

Modern statesmen and business leaders have paid Toyama sums of money to restrain his Ronins or to purchase their use for personal support. There is abundant evidence that Toyama takes money in this way, but his supporters say that, like Robin Hood, he takes it only to give it to the poor. So there is room for the two views that prevail about his true personality.

CLEVELAND STREET CAR TIEUP AGAIN AVERTED

CLEVELAND.—For the third time in two weeks a street car tieup was averted Saturday when Chief Justice Homer G. Powell in common pleas court, granted the carmen's union a temporary mandatory injunction. It restrains the Cleveland Railway Co. putting in effect its proposed open shop policy pending litigation to determine the validity of the disputed twelve cents an hour arbitration award and forbids the company making any attempts to get its men to sign any agreement meanwhile or to withhold any of their pay on the present scale.
Hearing on a petition to make the temporary order permanent was set for Tuesday, altho the injunction runs thru Wednesday and can be continued if preliminary hearings are not over by that time, Judge Powell said.

OHIO OPENS WAR ON SMALLPOX

Situation in Northern Part Declared Serious

COLUMBUS.—(By Associated Press)—Seriousness of the smallpox situation in Ohio, as viewed by officials of the state department of health, was emphasized Saturday in two activities set in motion by Dr. John E. Monger, state director of health.

In a letter to Munson Havens, secretary of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, Dr. Monger asked the cooperation of that body in the task of preventing further inroads of the disease in northern Ohio. It is the intention of the department to send letters to chambers of commerce in all Ohio cities within the next few days, seeking their aid in preventing a spread of the disease.

The second step was the issue of instructions to chiefs of all divisions of the department to have employees under their jurisdiction report to the division of communicable diseases Monday to be vaccinated. If unvaccinated or not recently vaccinated.

The letter to Secretary Havens, outlines epidemic conditions in Ohio, the specific menace of the Michigan epidemic to the people of northern Ohio and emphasizes both the necessity for and the value of vaccination as a public health measure. Conditions are said to be exceedingly bad in northern Ohio. Reports to the department show, 3,463 cases so far this year as compared with 1,653 cases during the same period last year.

Convention Opens at 4

FORM TO BE ADOPTED
Bettman to Make Keynote Address

TRIBUNE—(By Associated Press.)—With an open field of candidates seeking nomination for office, Ohio Republicans held their state convention today and Wednesday for purpose of adopting a platform which the successful candidate will seek election in November and to select presidential electors.
The convention will be the second state convention within a month to be held by the Republicans, the first having been held in a futile attempt to put up a united front
of candidates selected by the party. It is not expected that an attempt will be made to endorse candidates of the failure of the first convention to do so. However, it is believed to be a possibility that the organization leaders of the larger cities and coun-tymen will agree to throw support to certain candidates. The convention will open at 4 p. m. Tuesday at the Hotel Hamilton, with keynote address by Chas.

Bettman of Cincinnati, the chairman of the committee on platform. The committee will also be working on the resolutions committee. The resolutions committee have the biggest job
of the convention, that of drafting a platform.
SUBJECTS
It is known that leaders are discussing for some subjects which may be in the platform declarations which appear certain to be in the platform. These are taxation, administration of state welfare and separation of church and state.
The subject which is being discussed is taxation.
It is being so many divisions on this subject that it is difficult to draft a platform that will harmonize
the thoughts along this line.

CULVER'S BEST ATHLETE

HENRY WEMMER

A Lima boy, Henry Wemmer, son of H. G. Wemmer, 334 W. Market-st., won the distinction of being the best all-around athlete and scholar at Culver Military Academy during the last session. He was voted the gold medal which is awarded annually by the faculty for the best record in both scholarship and athletics.

Officials, Secretary of State Thad H. Brown; Auditor Joseph D. Tracy; Treasurer Harry S. Day and Attorney General Crabbe will conduct joint headquarters at a local hotel during the convention. Brown and Crabbe both have opposition for re-nomination.
Congressman Charles Brand, Urbana, has sent a letter to all delegates urging them to go on record in the platform in favor of building main roads in the state system at the state's expense and also favoring the counties taking care of the balance of the roads in the county.
Brand cites many figures to back up his contention that the present system of building roads is unfair.
Asher A. Galbreath, one of the delegates from Columbiana-co., to the state convention, announced Saturday that he would sponsor a resolution to rescind the action of the special convention, which failed in its attempt to name a state of candidates for state office, favoring preprimary endorsement.

WAR WIDOWS WED
LONDON — The British Isles have 100,000 fewer war widows today than there were immediately after the armistice. Most of them have remarried. Records show, although some of that number have died. There still are 150,000 widows on the books of the pensions ministry, however.

AUTO IS IMPORTANT IN AMERICAN INDUSTRY

SPEED AIDS IN BUSINESS

Only 40 Percent of Machines Used for Pleasure

15,000,000 CARS USED

4,500,000 Automobiles Found in Use on Farms

While everyone realizes that the growth of the automotive industry has been prodigious, the public at large is not fully awake to the great importance of the industry to the country as a whole, says D. A. Burke, president and general manager of a well-known motor car company.

"If you drive into the country on a holiday and find the roads congested with cars," says Burke, "you're inclined to feel that the automobile is essentially a pleasure vehicle."

"It may surprise you to learn that 60 per cent of all passenger car mileage is strictly for business purposes. But this is a fact brought to light by a recent investigation made by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce.

"This same investigation," continues Burke, "shows that 289,000 children are transported to school daily in motor vehicles. This very fact means that thousands of rural communities now have educational advantages equal to the best that the city affords. The little red school house is giving way to the large, well-equipped school building which today draws its pupils from a wide radius. Of the 13,037 such consolidated schools now operating, almost 1,400 were established in 1923 and practically all of these were made possible by the increased use of motor vehicles in rural districts."

FARMERS USE AUTOS

"More than 4,500,000 of the 15,000,000 motor vehicles now in use are owned on the farms. The only region where less than half of the farmers own automobiles is in the dry-farming wheat area which has been going thru financial difficulties since 1917. By speeding up the transportation between town and farm, automobiles and trucks have given the farmer many of the advantages of city life in addition to many that city folks cannot have."

"Response to thousands of inquiries mailed by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce to physicians throughout the country indicate that 144,000 physicians own motor vehicles, or 90 per cent of the entire number practicing in the country.

"It is easy to understand the marked contribution the automobile has been to the medical profession. It is as necessary for speedy transportation as the telephone is for quick communication. It enables doctors to respond promptly to urgent calls and saves hours of time in his routine duties, not to mention the saving of human lives this added speed makes possible."

"These are but two or three instances of the benefits that the country is deriving from the automobile industry. There are many others that apply to various groups of individuals. From the government's standpoint, automotive products paid 77 per cent of the total excise taxes in 1924.

"And we must not forget that the automobile industry itself gives employment to 2,879,270 workers. Many thousands more are employed in industries that provide the raw materials. This means that several billion dollars are paid annually to the automotive industry in salaries."

GAS IS CHEAP.

In some parts of Texas gasoline is more common and cheaper than water. In Grapeland, Tex., car owners must pay 35 cents for distilled water while gasoline costs but 20 cents.

Overland Plays Important Role In Hard Winds

Reports from Willis-Overland distributors in all parts of the country are that, according to early indications, long distance touring will be the vogue during 1924. They state that the movement is already under way, despite the retarded spring in some sections, with prospects of greatly increased momentum as the season advances and road conditions improve.

As it is to be expected the first early spring migration is witnessed in the south and extreme west. From reports California is already seeing unusually heavy tourist traffic, both extending northward as well as eastward into the trails and national parks of New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Utah and California.

One of the models to fit the particular demands of such driving is the Overland Coupe-Sedan, hailed for months as America's most versatile car and proving a veritable boon for the vacationists and tourist because of its unique seating arrangement that permits it to be converted into a Pullman bed when camping.

A recent instance of its success in this capacity is the 7,000 mile trip completed by Jacob Oest, Grand Rapids, Mich. in his Overland Champion. Mr. and Mrs. Oest started last November from Grand Rapids and drove through Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida to Miami. Returning they went through Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky and Indiana.

Oest is a carpenter-contractor and on his trip carried a complete set of carpenter tools, in addition to bedding, a trunk, three suit cases and cooking utensils, which included a table, camp chairs, stove, dishes, etc. Mr. and Mrs. Oest slept in the car each night during the trip.

Chandler Wins Victory Over Foreign Autos

Details of a fine victory scored by an American made automobile against British, French and Italian cars at Bombay, India, have just been received in this country in the official report of the Bombay Motor club. The event was the Bombay-Poona reliability run, held March 1. Twenty-two cars competed, of which nine were American. The cars were scored for acceleration, for performance on a four-mile hill-climb, on a four-mile average speed test, and for reliability on a run of 120 miles from Bombay to Poona. This route crosses the Western Ghats, with steep mountain roads. A Chandler was the winner, with a perfect score in the first class of cars, and was awarded a handsome trophy cup. A British Rolls-Royce was second in the same class, and was awarded a silver medal. The Chandler was the only car in the class for larger cars to finish with a perfect score of 200 points. It easily won the acceleration test, covering the course in nine seconds, one second faster than the Rolls-Royce. In the four-mile hill-climb the Chandler was second fastest, the Rolls-Royce being the first to the top.

The 22 cars competed in five different classes, the Chandler being in the first class. The winner of one lower class also finished with a perfect score. This was a British

Rover, but its acceleration test was three seconds slower than the Chandler, and its four-mile hill-climb was more than three minutes slower than the Chandler.

SEALS THREATEN SALMON PACS

Fisherman Devise Means to Combat Menace

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Destruction of one-third of the average spring salmon pack in the Fraser river by hair seals, has caused local fishermen to fear the fish will become extinct and a large revenue be lost.

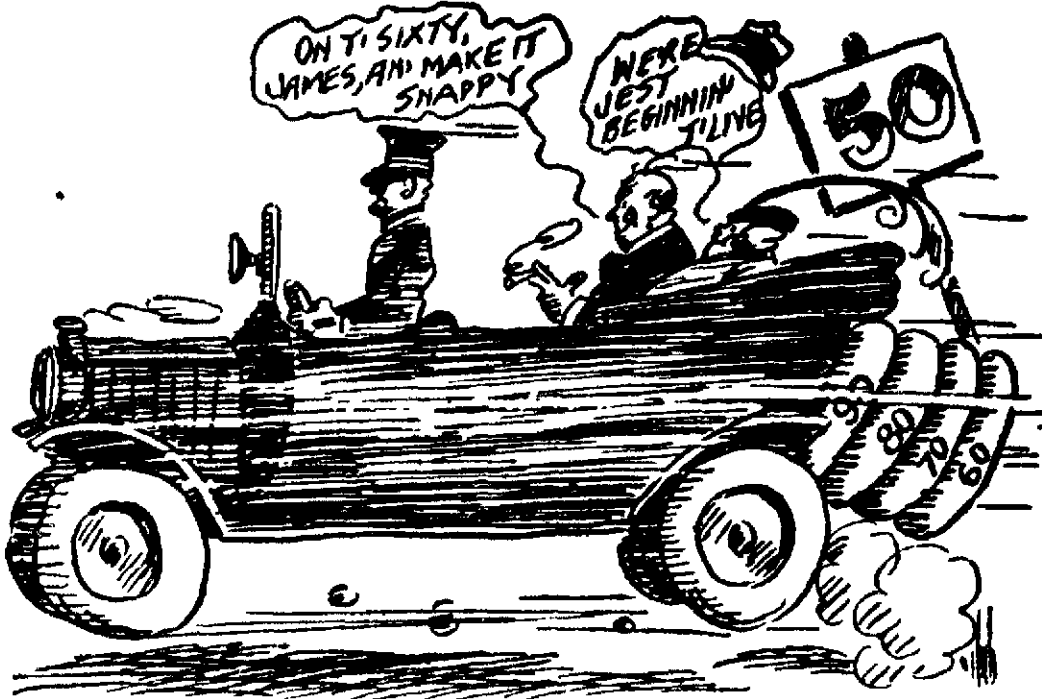

So clever are the seals that it is a race between them and the fishermen every time a bobbing cork on the net shows that a salmon has struck it. The seals generally win. Wolf-like, a seal goes for the throat of a fish, and usually a head is all that is left in the net. Fishermen have tried spreading a "blind" net, to protect the actual fishing net, but the seals, evidently learning the trick, drive salmon into the net to make capture easier.

Not only do seals live on salmon, but when their hunger is appeased, they kill for sport, tossing the fish out of the water as a cat plays with a mouse. A seal can throw a 50-pound salmon clear of the water, the fishermen declare.

Mr. F. J. Kernan, state deputy of the R. C. W. will be a guest of the members here on Thursday, June 24. Mr. Kernan will be one of the principal speakers at the evening session of the 27th anniversary of the order in Lima.

On Bein' Fifty

HITTIN' 'EM UP AT FIFTY

Jest think of all th' paintin' an' flip dressin', an' masqueradin' that's indulged in t' stove off middle age, when, next t' childhood, it's th' best age of all. Youth, with its restlessness an' worries, an' crazy notions an' pitfalls, an' heart flutterin's, an' uncertainties, is sweet an' romantic, but all th' troubles of after years are contracted fer durin' youth, jest when we hain't got sense enough t' know what we're doin'. If we're of th' right composition, we're at th' height of our glory at middle age, seasoned an' sensible, an' capable of appreciatin' th' joy of livin'. Th' fire o' romance is by no means extinguished at fifty, an' we still hanker fer fifty hosc an' foxy clothes. We should be happy an' thankful at fifty, that we got safely through th' wild age o' youth. It scares lots of us when we look back, an' we wonder how we ever reached fifty, an' it is a wonder that anybody ever does reach fifty. When we reached fifty, we felt jest like we'd finally got out of an overcrowded day coach. At fifty ever'thing worth havin' is spread before us. If we're married an' already have th' blessin's that's comin' t' us, we're ripe t' enjoy 'em, and if we're single it's not a bit too late t' cast about, an' with all th' judgment an' experience that we've piled up, we ought t' make a purty fair stab at marriage. Women folks should welcome middle age. By fifty th' average mother has raised her flock an' kin git a breathin' spell, an' git out an' out up a little, while th' spinster usually has a good job, or has kept company with some slow poke so long she resigned. By fifty, th' ordinary married couple has devised a good, workable plan whereby they kin live together, an' they have married daughters an' sons t' visit, or straighten out, or finance. By fifty, th' home an' furniture are nearly allus paid fer an' we kin smoke better cigars, an' look better around th' feet. Th' struggle t' live, th' long truin' days t' git ahead, th' ekimpin', an' bopin', an' plannin', an' all the trials o' life, are usually over by th' time we reach fifty. There's no feelin'

in th' world, that kin hold a candle t' th' feelin' o' security that comes over us once we're established in life, when we feel that we kin slow down an' enjoy th' privilege o' livin'. An' from twenty-five t' fifty is a good long time t' git our house in order. Lots o' folks git ready t' live in less time, but it's goin' some t' be able at fifty t' begin on th' really golden years o' life with a paid up policy an' a good liver. (Copyright, 1924)

FRENCH ACE INSTRUCTS JAPANESE CADET FLIERS

TOKIO — Georges Barbot, French flying wizard, until recently holder of the world's endurance record for glider flying, has arrived in Japan to demonstrate for the army the most recent advances in aviation. He is to be attached to one of the army's largest airplane production centers to teach Japanese builders the latest principles of airplane construction. Barbot brought with him two planes, one the tiny "avonette" carrying a 12-horsepower Salmson engine, with which he flew across the English Channel recently. The other machine is a 300-horsepower Hispano Suiza, which may become a model for new Japanese fighting planes.

TOKIO — Express trains on the principal lines of the imperial government railways have been equipped with libraries for passengers. In view of the large number of foreigners using these lines, the libraries will include English books.

HOW FAT SPOILS YOUR APPEARANCE

No matter how pretty you are of expensively dressed you may be, if you have allowed ugly rolls of fat to take hold of your body, you are not a winner. "Nobody likes a fat man or a fat woman." Worse yet, you cannot be well and healthy when you are over-taxing your frame with an unnatural load of fat. But why remain so, now that SAN-GRINA, a new French discovery, makes it possible and easy to safely reduce from 5 to 6 pounds a week in the quiet of your own home without the knowledge of anyone.

"For years I had tried everything advertised to reduce, but without success. I weighed 180 pounds, and was considered a most obstinate case of obesity. I had spent a great fortune on pills, creams, stirrers, etc., but they never helped me. Then I found out about SAN-GRINA. I used it for eight weeks and lost 35 pounds. At the same time I so transformed my appearance and improved my health. I am now 145 pounds and feel like a new woman. It is a most wonderful discovery. I can truthfully recommend it to all fat people." (Signed) Mrs. H. A. Box 157, Station M, New York City.

NOTE—The demand for "SAN-GRINA" is tremendous and it is difficult to have every drug store supplied with most every leading drug or department store has it. DO NOT ACCEPT ANY SUBSTITUTE. REMEMBER THE NAME—"SAN-GRINA."

San-Gri-Na is now sold at Baldwin's, Butler's South Side, Daniels, Keltner's, Green's, Hunter's Drug Stores.

While you are getting slender and you see the fat gradually melt away, you will feel yourself getting stronger and full of pep and energy. You can eat all you want while you take SAN-GRINA. You do not have to exercise or follow long and strenuous directions, but be sure and get "SAN-GRINA" as it is so simple and easy, and cannot be compared to anything else. It is the discovery of a French scientist, and has only lately been introduced in America, where it has already created a sensation among fat people.

Buttons, Buckles and Marabou Trim Our Clothes

(BY MARY MARSHALL)

OSTRICH, marabou, lace, fringe, silk and bead embroidery, appliques of white kid, Mt. micro, white fur, galloon, etc. flowers and flowers and fruit made from ostrich, buttons galore, ribbons, braid, tucking, pleating, patch work, chevron, buckles—lizard skin and porcupine quills. This is but a part of the list of trimmings of the season.

Trimming counters are piled high with their extravagant and perfectly useless burden and, judging from the activity of the saleswoman in charge, the demand is quite as great as the

ous ribbon bows and loops. Here at least is a ribbon that need not be removed when the little frock or bonnet or apron goes to the wash. They also choose it for decorating lingerie.

Wide ribbon is chosen by many women for scarfs. For evening the crepe de chine sort is usually preferred—while heavier plaid or striped ribbons are chosen for tailored or sport frocks.

Satin ribbon has been used to bind edges of simple line daytime frocks. One frock of white crepe showed an edging of inch-wide navy blue satin ribbon.

OSTRICH AND MARABOU

In Paris the ostrich has been running a pretty race with the enormous stork whose plumage green tame carries as its sole decoration three flounces of ostrich—one just below the hips, one at the knees and one at the hem. The ostrich is long and uncurled, in emerald green. The same ostrich edges the scarf which is worn with the gown.

Quite frequently the clear-cut silhouette demanded by fashionable at the present time discounts the value of lace. Persistently, however, some of the lead-the subject of the costuming of the Grand Prix ball in Paris this summer would be the Spanish mode as shown in the paintings of Goya, Velasquez and their ilk. It became apparent that the interest in lace would not wane. For the seventeenth and eighteenth century masters of Spanish painting gave prominence to section that is deeply banded, or bordered with cretonne. CRETONNE AND MARQUETTE.

The effect is most interesting—the heavy, stiff cretonne on the soft, clinging voile.

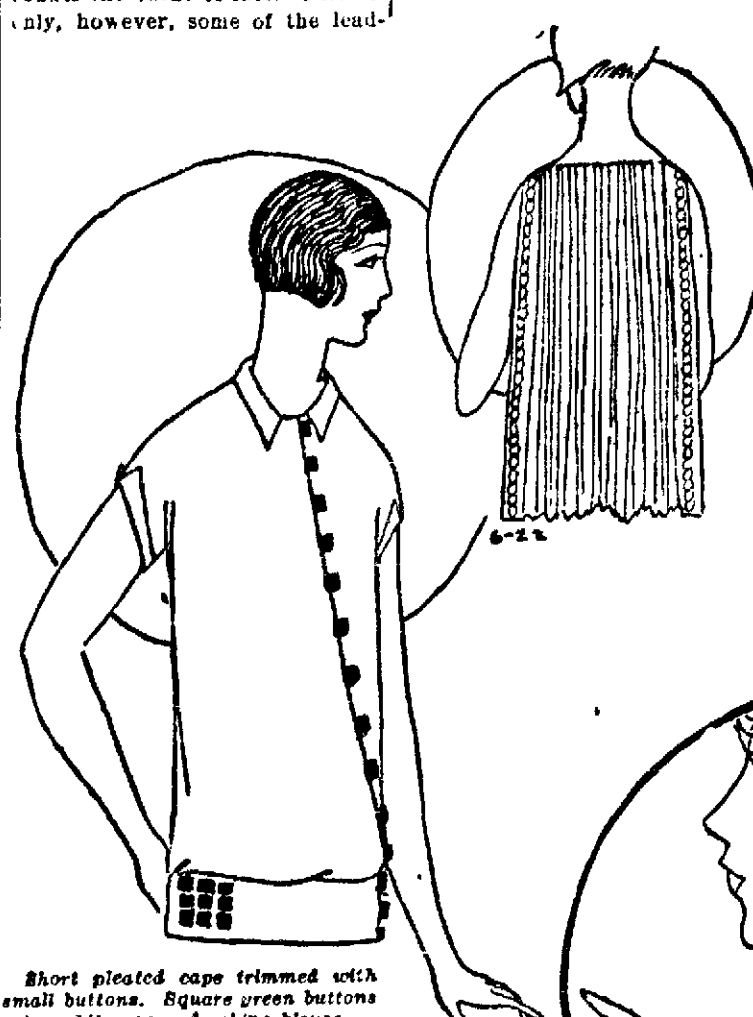

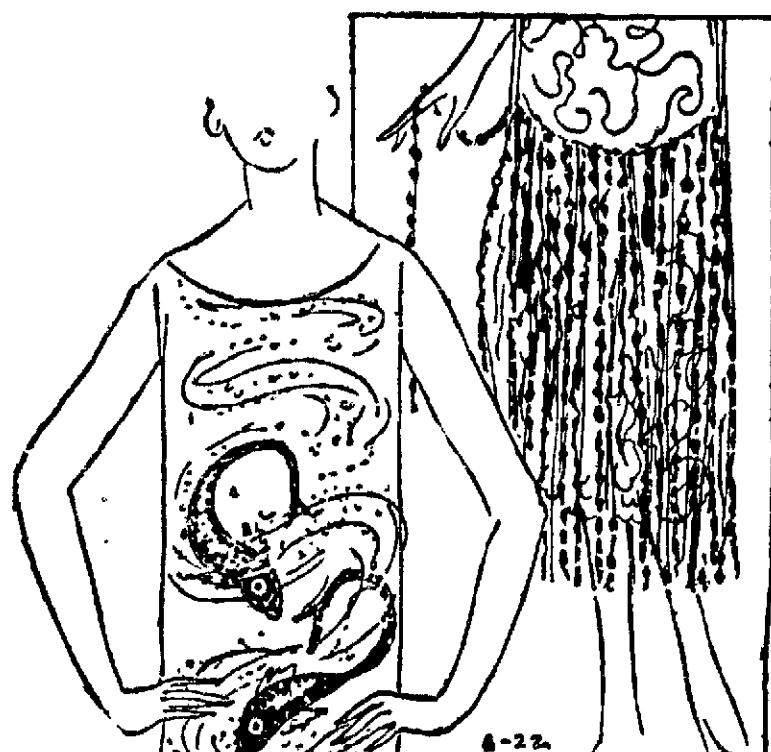

Another frock is of oyster-white marquette with a brilliant cretonne used for trimming. There are bands of it, and tiny buttons, cut so that they come in all the colors—green and orange, blue and flame.

The character that makes these clothes especially interesting is that charm that always pertains to the combination of two fabrics, heavy and thin—the same thing that makes us like fur posed on chiffon, the same thing, perhaps, that makes

And there are transparent glass buttons in all sizes, too, some of them with the four holes stained in different colors supply. And yet we have been assured by observers of the fashion that a decided simplicity marked the new frocks of the season.

What would be more accurate would be to say that in every collection of frocks there are always some that stand out strikingly—and that when trimming is used with barbaric lavishness. Often a part of a frock is left severely unadorned while another part will be weighted down with much trimming. A strictly simple satin evening frock untrimmed at neck and shoulders will carry an enormous ruff of ostrich fringe at the hem of the skirt or a gigantic puff of ostrich at one hip. A blouse will be made with mannish simplicity save for a row of enormous square green glass buttons across the front.

THE WAY WITH RIBBON

The new soft crepe de chine ribbon makes strong appeal to the woman of discrimination. It has been much praised in France where its lightness and the delicacy of the colors in which it is made, together with the fact that it does not deteriorate when washed, has brought it into favor. American shops are now selling it and it is the choice of smart dressmakers when a wide ribbon is needed to make bows or loops to trim soft, light summer frocks.

The narrow crepe de chine ribbon is hailed with delight by French women who never feel that their babies and little girls are properly dressed unless they are properly decorated with numergives us marabou. Both sorts of plumage are dyed successfully and are most effective in the new fresh, clear evening tones, instead of selecting this plumage to match the material with which it is used the artist dress makers often use it in a darker tone—ruby against pink, clear orange against yellow, aphrodite green against a paler tone.

Sometimes a fringe of very long uncurled or glycerine ostrich flues is draped in an arbitrary manner across an otherwise severely simple frock. One frock shows this ostrich fringe draped over the left shoulder and from thence down to the opposite hip, where the two ends are tied and dropped together to trail at the side. A white evening frock shows two flaring flounces on the skirt edged with full fringe of ruby and pink ostrich, while a double row of gray ostrich edges a wrap of silver lame. A straight-line, tubular frock of gold and ers here and abroad are using lace and Premet is spoken of in Paris as the special champion of this form of ornament which has been called the "most aristocratic of all personal adornment."

LACE IS SUCCESSFUL

The success of lace at the present time depends much on the discretion shown in using it. Worth noting is an evening gown of white satin, sleeveless and left quite plain at neck and armholes. Wide green lace is laid across the front just below the bust and from thence curves under each arm and then down to the hem of the skirt.

With the announcement that lace—as did their sitters. Cretonne is used in several interesting ways this summer. There is, for one, the cut-out applied with gold stitching. That has already been referred to. Then there is the combination of cretonne with thin fabrics. One frock that has attracted attention is made of gray cotton voile, with a deep yoke of figured cretonne—mauve and rose, on a gray ground. There is also a yoke of figured cretonne—mauve and rose, on a gray ground. There is also a band on the skirt, which is cut with an over section—and it is this over the proverbial clinging vine and sturdy oak so interesting. In this case, of course, the sturdy oak seems to depend on the clinging vine, but that doesn't matter.

Cretonne is used, of course, to trim the hats that are worn with these frocks. Sometimes the the facing, sometimes the trimming band is of cretonne, sometimes flowers are cut out and applied as trimmings.

MORE BUTTONS.

At the button counters you can get all sorts of good ideas for trimming. For one thing there are plaid buttons to be used on sport frocks and coats. These

ODDS AND ENDS OF FASHION.

Have you noticed that many of the new straw hats are trimmed with velvet? Big leghorns with velvet bindings around the edge, velvet crowns or velvet trimming bands around the crowns. These hats are exceedingly attractive. Sometimes over the velvet crown, lace in the same color is shirred, with the edge falling over the edge of the hat brim.

A loose meshed straw hat has a gold buttonhole one, two, three stitch worked as a border around the edge of the brim. The embroidery is done in soft gilt ribbon about an inch wide. Then the ribbon is used also in several hands around the crown, with bows and ends at one side.

Sport stockings are made in the and dye designs and colors, to wear with matching scarfs.

CKS BY BRYAN EXPECTED

Mayor Believed Prepared Convention Surprises

HORSE LOOKED FOR

Expected to Play Important Role, He Says

LIMA NEWS BUREAU, Lima, Ohio, June 24.

Local leaders here are confident that William Jennings Bryan is preparing to enter the Democratic convention next week with a bag of tricks which will surprise the public platform of the party. Bryan, who was elected to the nomination of Woodrow Wilson in 1912, has been about thirty years in the past few years, and is giving out cryptic hints.

As last seen in Washington, Bryan was observed to be in good physical condition, and was ten years younger than a few months ago. When he was in the winter, he looked old and tired, and "snubbed" by the leaders. At that time the man who was the public platform of the party as the "Boy Orator of the Plains" in the campaign of 1908, and who has admitted to friends here, including his secretary, Representative Edward, of Nebraska, that he was determined to play a leading New York.

It is always been impossible to keep Bryan's course in a Democratic national convention, but his friends in this city believe they know his mind.

FOR MEADOWS. In the early ballots, Bryan is expected to support William G. McAdoo, to whom he is pledged.

McAdoo does not muster the majority, it is probably all then that a "dark horse" of his own selection in the person of Josephus Daniels, of the Navy under the administration.

As is as dry as Bryan and not appear possible that he will win over enough of the delegates to insure his election.

When the coup fails, Bryan is expected to turn in for his brother, Charles W. Bryan, of Ohio, who is the most active candidate.

The Bryan will share the same suite in New York hotel and it is supposed that William J. Bryan, no step of which Charles advised and which does the latter's ambitions.

Governor Bryan is not here at the present time, but is a real contender for the nomination.

Bryan has made it plain to the convention that he will fight the nomination for Smith. This means a fight for the nomination.

Followers, and the feeling among Smith's supporters on the floor is certain.

These circumstances, it is said, will lead to the nomination of the most Democratic convention.

The Commoner is expected to be smarting under the hands of the party and his friends predict he will stake his future prestige upon the effect of his first speech at the New York convention. It is unlikely that the Colonel will be invited to address the convention, but he can gain the floor by the same means he employed at Baltimore in 1912. At that time, he offered a resolution from the floor and demanded and obtained an opportunity to discuss it.

While Bryan failed at San Francisco four years ago to control the action of the convention on any important step, his powers as a convention performer are by no means diminished by those who will be in charge at New York. He won the first of three presidential nominations by his famous "cross of gold" speech at the Chicago convention of 1896, and as recently as 1912 he blocked the nomination of Champ Clark when the latter had more in a majority of the delegates. It is the same old Bryan, the Democratic leader, who is preparing to contend with at New York being signing Tuesday.

Mayor Quizzed By State Men In Barn Fires

LEIPSIK — E. H. Robinson, mayor of Leipzig, knows now what it means to be given the "third degree" with the lockup just in sight. Two deputy state fire marshals, who were in Leipzig expecting to run down a partially demolished person believed to be Deshler's firebug, had reached the hotel and were just about ready to start out to arrest their prey Robinson, dirty and black from wrestling for several hours with a stubborn fitter. The deputy fire marshal believed they had found their man. Placing their hands on his shoulders, they told him to sit down and answer their questions. For more than a half an hour the mayor was under a fire of inquiries.

When at last their suspicions were aroused, one of them said, "Hail, man, you're not crazy." "No," said Robinson, "I'm just the mayor of Leipzig."

Mayor Hager, of Deshler, who came up during the questioning, allowed the proceedings to go on and enjoyed the joke.

The fire marshals were investigating the cause of blaze which some two months ago at Deshler destroyed more than $150,000 worth of property, including two large elevators.

DANCER'S HEART NOW LONDON—The weird strains of syncopated music have produced the newest complaint—"dancer's heart." Fashionable London has succumbed to the malady. Everywhere you hear it—in hall rooms, at the theater, in brightly-lit cafes: "The doctor says I have dancer's heart."

Doctors tell their patients that they are suffering from overstrain and must dance no more for months.

LOCUSTS STOP TRAINS ROME—Thick swarms of locusts descended over Sardinia recently, obscuring the sun, ravaging the countryside and leaving desolation in their wake. In places they settled over railway tracks and held up the trains.

FRIENDS TO TESTIFY AT TRIAL OF FRANKS SLAYERS

CHICAGO — A dozen friends and acquaintances, some of them young women, of Nathan Leopold Jr., and Richard Loeb, confessed kidnapers and slayers of 13 year old Robert Franks, will probably be placed on the witness stand at the trial in an effort by the state to prove the boys are sane, prosecutors indicated Saturday.

The young men and women who associated daily with the two millionaires' sons who said they killed for excitement have been summoned for questioning by the state's attorney who indicated that he hoped to refuse expected statements of alienists for the defense that the boys are not normal mentally with the recital of their daily activities as told by the youthful companions.

Examination of the youths by alienists for the defense which were discontinued temporarily a few days ago, will probably be resumed next week.

LOCAL BOOTERY REMODELED

Crawford Store Improvements To Cost $20,000

Improvement work which was started nearly two months ago at the Crawford Bootery, 138 N. Main-st., is well on the road to completion. P. W. Crawford, owner, announced Saturday. When finished, improvements will have cost approximately $20,000, Crawford said.

Work on a new 60-foot rear addition has been completed, and the capacity of the basement has been doubled. The addition, which is one story high, houses the new children's department and general offices.

On Monday workmen will begin work on the main floor. The entire front will be torn out of the building. The new front will be 21 feet deep and 17 feet wide. Accommodation will be provided on the main floor for a modern new hosiery department for men, women and children.

When everything has been completed the store will be on a par with any bootery in northwestern Ohio, both with regard to the size and variety of stock and housing facilities, Crawford asserted.

Hope was expressed by Crawford that work on the main floor, which will complete the entire job, will be completed by the end of the week.

DISCHARGED SOLDIER ON HEALTH TOUR STOPS HERE

John E. Stringer, resident of the Dayton Soldiers' home, stopped over in this city for a short time, Saturday, on his way home after a tour thru 18 states.

Stringer was born in Sullivan-co., which county adjoins Linn-co., where General Pershing was born. Stringer's home is but 80 miles from the former home of the notorious James boys, and 100 miles from the Younger home. He was discharged from the United States army in 1912 for disability.

EXECUTIONERS UNITE MADRID — Nine Spanish executioners have organized a union to demand bigger salaries in view of the high cost of living and the risks of their calling. The executioners have often been threatened with death as a result of their duties in carrying out the extreme penalty.

BOY SCOUTS TO HAVE CAMP

Seventy Lima Boys Will Leave Here Next Saturday

NEW MESS SHACK BUILT

Hikes, Swims, Study Hours Arranged By Leaders

Seventy boy scouts will leave Lima Saturday, June 28, for Camp Quasucotan, which is located along Lake St. Marys. Camp will be maintained until July 30, and more than 200 scouts from Lima, Findlay, Kenton and Wapakoneta will spend ten-day periods there during that time.

Lima Scout Executive Joseph M. Butcher will be in charge of the camp, assisted by executives from other cities to be represented. Butcher and the "Pioneer Squad" are engaged in preparing for the grand opening.

Camp Quasucotan comprises 19 acres on the north shore of the lake. Included are several acres each for athletics, bathing, nature study and buildings. Additions have been built to the mess shack and other quarters so that a greater number of scouts can be accommodated than ever before.

Main objectives of the camp, Butcher says, are character building and good citizenship training. It is also to train scouts to become familiar with the out-of-doors, which is one of the requisites of a first-class scout.

TO LIVE IN TENTS Explorative and special planned hikes will form a part of the program each week. Expert swimming instructors have been hired, and regular hours will be maintained for work, study, and sport.

Every camper will be assigned to an army pyramid tent. The large mess hall is entirely screened and is capable of accommodating more than 70 persons at one time.

Provision has been made for a baseball diamond, volleyball court, tennis and quail courts, and athletic contests will be planned each week.

Nature periods of the camp will be splendid training, and opportunity will be given to all to pass all outdoor tests by actual work rather than by demonstration.

Any boy who is 12 years or over may attend camp, providing he is already a scout or is willing to become a tenderfoot before going to camp.

Registration for the first period which opens June 28 must be in by June 24; for the second period by July 5, and for the final period by July 17.

Quilna Offers "Icebound"—Lew Cody, Claire Windsor Appear at the Lyric

COOLING SYSTEMS USED

Faurot Offers Comedy—Sigma Stars Blanche Sweet—Majestic's Bill Good.

BY GERTRUDE GILLHAM

With the arrival of warm weather and the installation of up-to-date cooling systems in the leading theatres, motion picture houses are destined to be the popular places of amusement during the remainder of the torrid season. And with this in mind, managers have booked some of the best summer programs available for presentation this week.

Lois Wilson and Richard Dix have the principal roles in "Ice Bound," a story of New England life, which comes to the Quilna this afternoon for the first half of the week. The picture is from the play by Owen Davis and was filmed by William de Mille. In the cast are Vera Reynolds, Edna May Oliver and Frank Shannon. Bill Hart wrote, produced and plays the leading role in "Singer Jim McKee," which opens on Thursday. The star is said to offer the usual number of thrills and is supported by Phyllis Haver in his most recent production.

Rum running has been used as the theme in "Those Who Dance," the Sigma's offering until Thursday. Without dealing with the morale of the prohibition question, Thomas Ince has staged a drama that is declared to be as interesting as it is unusual in this story. Blanche Sweet and Warner Baxter head the cast. "Thundergate," with Owen Moore and Sylvia Breamer, is the Sigma's week-end attraction.

Three photoplays make up the program at the Lyric this week. The first, which remains until Tuesday, is "Nellie, the Beautiful Cloak Model," with Claire Windsor and Lew Cody. It will be replaced by Lon Chaney's latest vehicle, "Flesh and Blood," in which he is said to give another outstanding characterization as a helpless cripple. Saturday brings Jack Dempsey in the first of his series, "Fight and Win," and Johnny Hines in "Conductor 1492."

"Daughters of Today," starring Gaston Glass, opens this afternoon at the Majestic. On Wednesday comes "Tribly" for a two day run to be followed by "The Eagle's Feather," starring James Kirkwood.

The Faurot Stock Co. offers the only legitimate attraction this week at the Lyric in "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath."

"Those Who Dance" Starts For Four Days

Motion picture goers who have been seeking something different in the way of motion picture story matter and plot dealing will welcome both the attractions. Manager Ritzler has booked for showing at the Sigma theatre this week.

The first which opens a four day stay this afternoon is Thomas H. Ince's latest production "Those Who Dance." Blanche Sweet, Robert Akner and John Salpeter head the excellent cast. On Thursday comes "Thundergate," with Owen Moore and Sylvia Breamer in the principal roles.

"Those Who Dance" is said to reveal a true story of the liquor traffic in the United States. It is not a preachment but the facts have been used as a motive in the fascinating revelation of a phase of life in this restless age.

Blanche Sweet enacts the roles of a little country girl who falls in with the life of the New York underworld in the attempt to save her brother from gangsters who have "framed" him on a charge of murder. When every other attempt fails, Rose, rather than abandon her brother to his fate, throws away her good name and, thru an affinity whom she takes into the home of a bootlegger of the underworld, gets the necessary evidence which frees her brother.

Blanche Sweet, as the innocent girl who bobs her lovely curls and puts on the paint and flapper dress of an underworld queen, is said to have one of the most compelling roles she has ever portrayed. The dual characterization gives her full scope for the dramatic ability she displayed so tellingly in "Anna Christie." Bes-

side Love plays an audacious underworld flapper role and Warner Baxter has the part of a young lawyer who is led into a fight against a gang of bootleggers.

A Bray cartoon will be an added feature on the program. "Thundergate" is based on Sidney Hershell Snell's novel, "The Lord of Thundergate," and has been claimed by many critics as the best photoplay of oriental life since "East is West."

Owen Moore portrays a young American engineer, whose resemblance to a Chinese lord precipitates him in a series of adventures, exciting and romantic situations and finally wins him a white wife, who was forced on him when, thru circumstances he was compelled to take the place of the real lord.

In addition to Owen Moore and Sylvia Breamer, the cast includes Virginia Brown, Robert McKim, Tully Marshall and Richard Cummings.

LON CHANEY

Character Actor Booked at Lyric Theatre

"Nellie, the Beautiful Cloak Model" is the current attraction at the Lyric theatre, to be followed on Tuesday by "Flesh and Blood" with Lon Chaney, which remains for four days. Saturday brings the first picture of the widely heralded series, "Fight and Win," starring Jack Dempsey.

"Nellie, the Beautiful Cloak Model" is essentially a melodrama, and although it has been freely adapted to the screen, its melodramatic highlights have all been

care of a foster parents. When he becomes ill, she seeks employment in a modest shop, not knowing that she is heir to a huge fortune. How she is almost cheated out of the heritage by a jealous cousin furnished the action for the story. It is capably acted by which contains names of several most popular players in the silent drama. Claire Windsor's blonde beauty lends itself perfectly to the role of Nellie, the cloak model while Mae Huch gives another of her life-like portrayals as Polly Joy. Lew Cody adds one more to his long list of model screen villains, and Hobart Bosworth is seen in a double role.

Lon Chaney, the screen's greatest character actor, has a role similar to those he portrayed in "The Miracle Man" and "The Penalty" in his latest picture which comes to the Lyric Tuesday. He impersonates an escaped convict whose fear of the law is so great that he disguises himself and becomes a helpless cripple. He is supported by a cast of eminent players including Edith Roberts, Noah Beery, Jack Mulhall, and Ralph Lewis.

Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion is the screen's recruit. He is making a series of fight pictures, the first of which comes to this theatre on Saturday. The Dempsey series, while essentially comedies, are said to be crammed with thrills, including several sensational fight scenes, in which the champion appears in the ring, pitted against noted fighters. This program will be completed by a Johnny Hines comedy, "Conductor 1492."

RUTH CLIFFORD

"Daughters of the Rich" Is Majestic Offering

Gaston Glass, Ruth Clifford and Ethel Shannon head the cast in "Daughters of the Rich," a screen version of the novel by Edgar Saltus, which comes to the Majestic this afternoon for three days.

The production is said to be one of the most lavishly staged pictures ever filmed by Al Lichtman and in quality of entertainment to even surpass his two previous productions, "Rich Men's Wives" and "Poor Men's Wives."

The story is replete with melo-

'GIVE ME PEPGEN' SAYS EUREKA AVE. WOMAN

Experience Proves Value of Famous Remedy.

Day after day new evidence is being produced in the Hunter Drug Store on the Public Square which proves the merit of Pepgen, the famous herbal remedy now so popular in Lima.

"Many of my oldest customers tell me they would not be without a bottle of Pepgen in the house," said Mr. Charles M. Hunter, head of the Hunter Drug Stores.

"It is a wonderful remedy for all forms of stomach trouble, kidney ailments and liver complaints," said Mrs. O. L. Pugh of Eureka Ave.

"I know from my own experience that it is a wonderful medicine. For months," continued this well known Lima woman, "I was in a terribly run down condition. I lost in weight and no desire whatever to eat anything. I just ate to stay alive. I had severe pains across my back in the region of my kidneys. There was not an ounce of real energy in my body and my sleep was anything but satisfactory."

"I read many accounts of the people who had been relieved by Pepgen and decided to give it a trial. To my dying day I will always be thankful for the day I went into Hunter's Drug Store for my first bottle of Pepgen. Not three days after I began the Pepgen treatment I started to feel better. Each day I found I had more energy and the pains in my back soon disappeared. I shall continue to take Pepgen for a few more days. It is doing me a wonderful amount of good."

CAUTION: The genuine Pepgen is packed in a white and blue carton and may be obtained in Lima only at the Hunter Drug Stores, 49 Public Square and corner Main and Wayne Sts., and the Argonne Store, opposite Post-office. Pepgen stores in nearby towns are:

THE TANGLE

An Intimate Story of Innocent Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO LESLIE PRESCOTT. CARE OF THE SECRET DRAWER, CONTINUED

I confess, little Marquise, that my heart sank a bit, as Jack wondered what his mother would say about my bobbed hair. She is so hide-bound with traditions and conventions that I was sure she would be horrified. For a moment I felt as tho I had made a mistake. You see, I had tried so hard to make Jack's mother like me and I felt I had succeeded. At that instant I was afraid that I had undone all that it had taken me the whole three years of my married life to accomplish. I told myself, being in fashion was not worth my family's displeasure.

But things never turn out just as you expect them.

When we opened the door, I found not only Mother Prescott in the living room but Priscilla Bradford. Mother Prescott seemed rather fussed, but she rose to the occasion.

"You know Priscilla Bradford," she said, as she came forward to kiss me. "She telegraphed me yesterday to ask me if she might come to see me and, of course, I answered with an invitation to call. However, I did not realize she was coming quite so soon or I would have asked her to wait until tomorrow, knowing that you would be in today, my dear."

Priscilla Bradford came forward slowly, almost hesitantly. She had removed her hat. Both Jack and I caught a good view of her simultaneously and with one accord we both burst into laughter.

Mother Prescott looked much chagrined and rather unhappy and Priscilla Bradford surprised and indignant. Yet for the life of me I could not stop laughing.

Finally, however, I managed to calm myself enough to explain. "You see, Miss Bradford, I bobbed

"I had just been telling dear Priscilla that I thought her hair was very becoming and that she looked 10 years longer. Take off your hat, Leslie, and let us see how you look."

Slowly I uncovered my shorn locks, and looked into the three faces before me.

Mother Prescott's was unqualifyingly approving; Priscilla Bradford's was slightly envious, for my bobbed head made me also look 10 years younger; and Jack—dear old Jack—at first looked hurt and then a smile curled up his lips as he came forward saying: "You're right, Leslie. You are more of a beauty than ever."

Little Marquise. It was an eventful homecoming, a rapturous welcome, almost a quarrel, nervous fear of disapprobation turned into joyous approbation and a knowledge that after almost everything comes out right if you wait a little.

Gardeners Are Made, Not Born!

I don't see any reason why you should give up the idea of having a garden just because you're too busy or too tired to give it the care it needs. You're the only smart city fellow who can make a garden keep it producing--and you won't have to get a professional to do it either. There are lots of high school boys who want to earn some extra money during vacation and would be glad to have a chance to do it pending an hour a day in your back yard. Why not advertise for one in your vicinity, then make a deal with him, and get that worry off your mind? We up and say you want your query listed in the classified Department under the heading, "Help Wanted." Any boy or man looking for part time work will see it and when you've come to terms you spend your evenings on the porch instead of in the garden. If you've got lots of garden space you can even be able to find a neighbor who'd work in return for a little space you'd give him one of his own. It's worth trying anyhow, and it costs much. Or if you know of anyone who is to do such work, tell him to write to me or telephone me at the Lima News.

Yours for Radishes and Onions,

Homes of the Bette: Kind

I have several homes that can be bought at what you would say are reasonable prices. A small payment down and the balance the same as rent. The locations are East—West—North—South, some are modern, others are partly modern. Now is the time to buy. BUY NOW.

Again I repeat, have faith in LIMA, and watch Lima grow. Lima's Real Estate values are sound and you can just mark my word that in the next 12 months you will see that I am right.

Why not drop in the office and let us talk it over?

Remember, if I haven't got just what you want I can and will get it for you.

FOR SALE—BUILDING LOT 50x220 on Bellefontaine, across from entrance to driving park; $1700. High 1412.

FOR EXCHANGE

A nice new six room strictly modern house, hard wood floors, nice lot, on good paved street on East side. This is a dandy new home, can sell on reasonable down payment or will take good vacant lot as part payment.

An eight room house, modern except furnace, nice big lot, plenty of fruit and garage and will sell on small down payment, balance like rent, $4500.

A five room modern house in good location on West side in A No. 1 condition, can be sold on easy terms, $5800.00.

A four room bungalow and bath on South side and some good building lots. Can exchange on a modern six room house or might consider double house.

New four room bungalow on South side; will take a good used car as down payment and the balance easy monthly payments.

Two hundred acre clear farm, located in the corn and cotton belt of South Carolina, A No. one land, two and one half miles from town. Can be exchanged for Lima property.

Twenty-three acres with a good six room house and other out buildings and good orchard, located on interurban line on good paved road near a good town. Can be exchanged for Lima property.

Twenty-two acres of lake frontage, adjoining Highland Park on St. Marys reservoir. This is a wonderful opportunity for some one interested in subdividing or building small cottages for rental purposes. It will show an extraordinary income and is a very fine investment.

One hundred and seventy-eight acres of good level black corn land. Has a good seven room house, large barn, new chicken house, two wells, cistern and gas in the house. Young orchard and located on good road, near schools and church. This farm has a Union Central Life Insurance Company loan of $9000, payable $88.00 per year until it is paid out. This farm has an income from oil of about $1500.00 per year which nearly doubles the payment on the loan. This is one of Mercer County's best farms and the owner has very recently decided to put it on the market. We have an option on this farm at a figure whereby the income for the oil alone will more than pay out the purchase price of this farm by the time the mortgage becomes due. Will exchange on a seven or eight room modern house in Lima.
